

Where is this famous poem?

“Give me your tired, your poor,
Your huddled masses yearning to breathe free,
The wretched refuse of your teeming shore.
Send these, the homeless, tempest-tost to me,
I lift my lamp beside the golden door!”

The Statue of Liberty

- France gave the Statue of Liberty to the United States.
- The statue is in New York City.
- The statue became a tribute to immigrants. In the mid to late 1800s, millions of immigrants arrived in America.
- Many immigrants arrived in New York City and went through Ellis Island in New York Harbor next to the Statue of Liberty
