

The 28th Amendment

1. A New and Necessary Amendment

- Your group must create and promote a new amendment to the United States Constitution
- Within your group you can be
 - Project Manager
 - Researcher
 - Advertising Director
 - Writer
 - Creative Director
 - Spokesperson
 - Artist/Graphic Designer
 - Tech Expert
 - Editor
 - Or create your own jobs!

2. Possible topics of your amendment

- Research and discuss topics that interest your group
- Choose One!
 - Net Neutrality
 - No discrimination based on gender
 - Universal Basic Income
 - Rights for Artificial Intelligent Beings
 - Control and rules for Artificial Intelligence
 - Space Exploration and Colonization (International Law on Space, freedom to explore)
 - Banning weapons of mass destruction
 - Global Warming, Climate Change, Clean Energy Rules
 - Curtailing the power of the president (presidential powers)
 - Changing the Electoral Vote/College
 - Right to Privacy – technological devices, home technology
 - Universal Healthcare
 - American Citizenship Rules
 - Right to higher education (should it be compulsory, paid for, etc.)
 - Or think of your own!

3. Presentation Must Include:

1. Written Component

- You can write this as a
 - Voter Guide
 - Pamphlet
 - PowerPoint/Prezi
 - Magazine/Newspaper Article
 - Blog
 - Pop-up book
 - Flip book
 - Display

- This must include:
 - The name of your group or committee
 - A Catchy Title for the 28th Amendment
 - An explanation of the underlying problem the amendment is addressing
 - Text of the amendment
 - Add in
 - What is your amendment about?
 - Hoped for outcome/effects of the amendment
 - The process to get the amendment approved
 - Explain Article 5
- 2. Promotion of the Amendment
 - How will your group convince Congress and the states to pass this amendment?
 - Be creative, advertise the amendment for Congress and the voters in your presentation. Use text and visuals.
 - Ideas
 - You can promote your new amendment by creating a(n)
 - Infomercial
 - Movie Preview Format
 - Art Project: Mural, Graphic Novella, Storyboard
 - A comprehensive series of memes
 - A Mini-Musical
 - PowerPoint/Prezi
 - Display Board
 - Or think of your own presentation!
- 3. Presentation: Gallery Walk